

I do not want Indiana Telephone privacy act altered in any way to allow calls from self-claimed "established business relationship" companies with whom I have dealt in the past. Indiana has a very successful law in place and all Indiana citizens who have enrolled in the coverage are delighted. The FCC has no business bowing to big-business pressure!

Meg Lindeman,
Bloomington, IN